

Become an Employer Champion

Are you supporting young people with a learning disability or an autism spectrum condition to move into employment through Supported Internship Programmes?

Who is it for?

Are you proud of your commitment to diversity and inclusion and want to learn more about how you can support young autistic people or people with a learning disability to move into work through a structured programme? If so, we would love to have you join us by becoming an Employer Champion

The Offer

We offer accredited training that is online and lasts for 2.5 hours and it will enable all your managers and mentors to reach out to other managers within your business and outside of your business to keep this brilliant work moving.

There are 2 options we can offer you and your managers and mentors with regards to this training:

▶▶ Firstly, we will very happily run the training specifically for your business so that we can brand the training as yours and you can be involved in introducing the programme.

OR

▶▶ We are really looking forward to many of you joining these sessions using this link at a date that suits you. Please do encourage colleagues to join the sessions and become employer champions as well.
<https://shorturl.at/gBFX2>

We are so much looking forward to brilliant Managers and Mentors joining these sessions and helping us lead the inclusion revolution for young adults with learning disabilities and autism. For more information contact info@dfnprojectsearch.org